Cartus Names Robert Bailor as Vice President of International Assignment Compensation Services

DANBURY, Conn., (November 11, 2016) – Cartus Corporation today announced the promotion of Robert Bailor to Vice President of International Assignment Compensation Services. He will replace William Bailey, who is retiring from the position. Bailor will serve as the practice leader and be responsible for the global delivery of Cartus' international compensation services offering.

"I am very excited to be working with the International Compensation team and taking on a client facing role once again," said Bailor. "My experience in Finance as well as customer facing roles allows me the unique perspective of creating solutions while maximizing resources and finding efficiencies which will benefit our clients. "

Mike Brannan, Senior Vice President, Cartus, points to Bailor's extensive experience that makes him uniquely qualified for the position.

"Bob's experience in relocation accounting and finance, as well as the fact that he previously held the position of Director, International Compensation Services, makes him uniquely qualified to lead the practice. He will be leveraging that expertise to further advance Cartus' compensation services offering," said Brannan.

Bob received a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration with a concentration in finance and management from the University of Maine, and his Master's degree from Fairfield University. He also became a Certified Relocation Professional in 2001.
