Cartus Launches All-New Company Website Featuring Comprehensive Resource Hub for Global Relocation Trends and Information

DANBURY, Conn., (August 29, 2014) – Cartus Corporation, a leading provider of global relocation services, has launched the all-new Cartus.com, redesigned to provide enhanced ease of use and value for its clients. Features include a comprehensive resource hub with up-to-the-minute information on global relocation news and trends, in-depth market research, and information on best practices—all brought together using multimedia and social media platforms. The breadth of information on the site reflects the company's extensive experience; it provides service in 165 countries and in 2012 managed nearly 160,000 moves.

The redesigned site with its new functionality comes on the heels of the company's recent launch of CartusMobileSM, the company's relocation app currently being used by transferees and companies in 87 countries, reinforcing the company's ongoing commitment to technology innovations. In addition to being mobile-ready and configured to view on any mobile device, Cartus.com is also tablet-friendly.

"Whether you're looking for information on Cartus' services, researching an important relocation trend, or wanting to learn more about a new destination or best practices, Cartus.com brings it all together," said Shelley Northrop, Cartus' vice president of marketing. "The new site is designed, first and foremost, to provide valuable, trusted guidance and information to our clients."

Highlights of the new Cartus.com include:

- A Comprehensive Resource Hub that includes live feeds from the Cartus Blog, videos, events calendars, and Cartus research – all tied together with the company's social media platforms.
- A Reference Library that can be used to find the latest industry trends and market research. This area also includes information on the latest relocation trends and best practices.
- Enhanced User Interface and Responsive design allows users to quickly find what they're looking for: whether it's on their computer, mobile device, or tablet.

"The new Cartus.com site underscores our commitment to being a leading resource for all things relocation, both domestically and globally," says Northrop.
