Cartus Honored with Philanthropy Award by Community Health Charities

DANBURY, Conn., (July 22, 2013) – Cartus Corporation, a leading provider of global relocation services, was recognized with a Philanthropy Award from Community Health Charities (CHC) at its New York Health Visionaries Recognition event on June 12. The award honors Cartus' longstanding and consistent support of CHC, whose purpose is to unite donors in the workplace with the nation's most trusted health charities.

"Our employees are generous, involved, and committed to changing things for the better," said Cartus Senior Vice President of Global Human Resources Amy Meichner, who accepted the award. "Our partnership with Community Health Charities is emblematic of our commitment to helping our communities be the best they can be."

Meichner also noted that as part of its ongoing commitment to its corporate social responsibility (CSR) initiatives, Cartus recently became a signatory member of the United Nations Global Compact and launched a microsite detailing its global citizenship initiatives.

"We are thrilled with the turnout at the event and appreciate the partnerships we have with both our member health charities and our campaign supporters," said Diane Fennimore, president and chief executive officer of Community Health Charities of New York. "Thank you for all that you do!"
