Jana Smith Named Director of Business Development for the Southeast Region For Cartus

DANBURY, Conn. (March 28, 2016) — Jana Smith, a relocation industry executive with more than 20 years of experience, has been named Director of Business Development for the Southeast Region for Cartus Corporation. Cartus is a leading provider of global relocation services.

Smith will be focused on both domestic and international business development in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, and Florida.

“Jana’s work at Cartus during the past decade positions her very strongly for her new role, allowing her to hit the ground running in the Southeast region,” said Kathi Feczko, Cartus senior vice president, Global Business Development.

A Cartus employee for 11 years, Smith was previously Director of Client Services. In this role, she was responsible for both domestic U.S. and international account management, managing the delivery of all of Cartus services as well implementing and maintaining tri-regional accounts with a focus on process improvement.

Her extensive relocation industry experience goes back two decades and includes roles in business development, client services, and real estate services.

Smith has bachelor’s degrees in political science and communication studies from California State University, Sacramento. Her professional designations include: Certified Relocation Professional (CRP) and Global Mobility Specialist (GMS). She is based in Charlotte, N.C.
