Cartus Wins Relocation Management Company of the Year in Asia for the Fifth Year in a Row

Singapore (Sept. 9, 2016) – Cartus Corporation, a leading provider of global relocation services, has been named Relocation Management Company of the Year in Asia for the fifth consecutive year. In addition, Cartus also received the Best Vendor Partnership award with their client, Statoil, a multinational oil and gas company.

The awards were presented to Cartus executives this week at the Asia Pacific Expatriate Management and Mobility Awards (EMMAs), in Singapore. The award program was organized by the Forum for Expatriate Management (FEM), a leading community for global mobility professionals.

The Relocation Management Company of the Year award recognizes the investment that Cartus has made in their in-house Learning & Development program. The program ensures that Cartus consultants (the employees guiding international assignees through relocation) receive comprehensive training from their first day in the role. This ensures that they deliver exceptional service to Cartus clients and their assignees.

The second accolade, the Best Vendor Partnership award, recognizes Cartus' partnership with Statoil, particularly the successful delivery of group moves in emerging locations.

Additionally, Cartus was runner-up in the Destination Services Provider of the Year category for its multi-lingual destinations services support in over 30 different cities in China.

"We are delighted to receive these awards, and we are particularly proud to be named the Relocation Management Company of the Year for the fifth consecutive year," said Kenneth Kwek, senior vice president and general manager of Cartus' Asia Pacific operations.

"To win the Best Vendor Partnership award with our client, Statoil is really special as it is a testament to the strong relationship our two organizations have formed. In addition being runner-up in the Destination Services Provider of the Year award demonstrates our expertise in this area too."

The EMMAs are independently judged by a panel of some of the most experienced and respected global mobility professionals from various industries and leading companies.

Cartus manages its Asia Pacific relocations from regional operations in Singapore, Beijing, Hong Kong and Shanghai.
