Cartus Awards College Scholarships to Three Employees' Children

DANBURY, Conn., (July 21, 2015) —Cartus Corporation, a leading provider of global relocation services, has named three students as recipients of the company's Sixth Annual Collegiate Scholarship Awards, which total $4,000. In all, 19 highly qualified applicants who are children of Cartus employees were considered for the awards.

The 2015 recipient of the company's $2,000 Scholarship Award was Connor Ghirardo of Arlington, WA, who will attend Stanford University. Two students won $1,000 scholarships: Jennifer Coté of Bethel, CT, who will attend Muhlenberg College; and Jordan Hunt of Castle Rock, CO, who will attend Colorado State University.

Amy Meichner, Cartus senior vice president of Global Human Resources, said, "These three remarkable students exemplify the kind of leadership that both the business community and the world will clearly need in the future. We are thrilled to be able to support them as they continue achieving their educational goals."

This is the sixth year that Cartus has offered its Scholarship Awards. To date, the company has distributed $25,000 to college-bound children of Cartus employees.
