Matt Spinolo, Worldwide ERC® Chairman and Executive Vice President of Cartus, Provides Update at New England Relocation Association Meeting

NORWOOD, Mass., (July 1, 2013) – Cartus Corporation Executive Vice President Matt Spinolo, who also serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors for Worldwide ERC®, provided members of the New England Relocation Association (NERA) with an update on the various strategies and tactics Worldwide ERC has undertaken to keep its members one step ahead in the ever-changing relocation industry.

Titled “What’s New at ERC,” Spinolo’s presentation focused on:

- An update on the May 2013 Worldwide ERC National Relocation Conference in San Diego;
- New and upcoming Worldwide ERC programs, including GMS-T certification and HR Peer 2 Peer;
- A review of the restructuring of the Worldwide ERC Board to reflect the organization’s focus on governance and transparency.

NERA provides a forum for relocation management executives like Spinolo to discuss and expand their knowledge of the issues surrounding the relocation of employees and their families within the U.S. and internationally.

With 26 years of relocation industry experience, today Spinolo has global responsibility for Cartus’ Client Services, Quality Assurance, and Sales and Marketing, with a focus on retaining and growing client business relationships, developing talent, and formulating the expectations and practices that distinguish Cartus from others in the market.

In addition to serving as chairman of the Government Relations Council of the Worldwide ERC® (WERC) Board of Directors, Spinolo chaired the Finance Committee and is a member of the Executive Committee, serving as Vice Chairman-Finance of the Worldwide ERC Board of Directors before being elected Chairman of the Board of Directors for 2013.
